

Jennifer White Evaluations, Fall 2016

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.						X
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						X
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.						X
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.						X
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						X
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						X
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.						X
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.						X
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						X

I particularly like how the instructor:

Was very down to Earth, and I really felt heard and appreciated

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

Lead more classes because I really enjoyed learning from her and loved her teaching style.

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.						X
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						X
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.						X
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.						X
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						X
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						X
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.						X
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.						X
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						X

I particularly like how the instructor:

was always available to clarify + support

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

Be more involved w/ lectures.

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.						X
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						X
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.						X
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.						X
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						X
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						X
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.						X
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.						X
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						X

I particularly like how the instructor:

Has a very positive and welcoming teaching style.
Gives useful feedback, & constructive criticism.
Shows a wealth of knowledge for the material.

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

Continues to work with students of different age groups and learning level.

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.					✓
2. Instructor was well-prepared.					✓
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.					✓
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.					✓
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.					✓
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.					✓
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.					✓
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.					✓
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.					✓

I particularly like how the instructor:

Smiled 😊, Helped alleviate stress and anxiety, used clickers to check comprehension

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.						X
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						X
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.						X
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.						X
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						X
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						X
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.						X
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.						X
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						X

I particularly like how the instructor:

Gives great, positive feedback.
Gives constructive feedback w/ specific ways to grow as a teacher.

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 . . . Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.					5
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						6
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.						6
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.					5
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						6
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						6
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.					5
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.					5
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						6

I particularly like how the instructor:

Professor White always was articulate when I came in to ask about current research & relationships to whole class content.

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

Provides sample video's of lessons so we can review her methods.

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.						✓
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						✓
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.						✓
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.						✓
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						✓
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						✓
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.						✓
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.						✓
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						✓

I particularly like how the instructor:

I loved how the instructor was able to connect with the students and create a comfortable, successful learning environment

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

I thought everything was well thought out and executed!

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 . . . Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.					X
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						X
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.						X
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.						X
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						X
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						X
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.						X
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.						X
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						X

I particularly like how the instructor:

Was always available for questions!
She made a wonderful impact on myself & helped me consistently throughout the course!
I don't think I could have passed the class without her help!

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

I have nothing! ☺

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.						X
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						X
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.						X
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.						X
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						X
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						X
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.						X
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.						X
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						X

I particularly like how the instructor:

Mrs. White would hold study groups for students who needed extra help. She also was very knowledgeable and very helpful with this content. Wonderful work!

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

I have nothing to suggest! She did a fantastic job and I loved her!

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.						X
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						X
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.						X
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.						X
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						X
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						X
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.						X
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.						X
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						X

I particularly like how the instructor:

was easily available to help. Was kind and caring in giving constructive feedback. Ran small study groups and provided clarity.

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

continue to be wonderful.

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.						X
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						X
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.						X
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.						X
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						X
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						X
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.						X
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.						X
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						X

I particularly like how the instructor:

was always open to ~~an~~ answering questions. The instructor encouraged the students with positive feedback. Lastly, the instructor always has a positive attitude!

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

n/a I believe this instructor IS wonderful!

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.						X
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						X
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.					X
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.						X
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						X
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						X
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.						X
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.						X
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						X

I particularly like how the instructor:

She was able to use real-life examples and provide specific applications for us.

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

Well, it isn't your fault that we are (well, were) clueless. ☺ Thank you so much!

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.						X
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						X
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.						X
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.						X
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						X
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						X
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.						X
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.						X
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						X

I particularly like how the instructor:

Mrs. White is a wonderful teacher. I think it's great that she took extra time to tutor us before class. She really broke down the questions we asked and took us through a step by step process. She was personable as well and made us feel warm.

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

She's awesome!

Guest Faculty Evaluation

Guest Faculty Name: Jennifer White
Course: Multisensory Structured Language Education
Location: University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Term: Fall 2016

For the items below, the scale is: Lowest = 1 Highest = 6

	1	2	3	4	5	6
1. Lectures and content information were clearly presented.						X
2. Instructor was well-prepared.						X
3. Instructor presented materials appropriate to student ability.						X
4. Examples were used to relate evidence to practice.						X
5. Subject matter reflected current research evidence.						X
6. The instructor promoted a constructive learning atmosphere.						X
7. The instructor provided useful feedback for content discussions.						X
8. The instructor provided useful feedback for teaching demonstrations.						X
9. The instructor encouraged active student participation.						X

I particularly like how the instructor:

The instructor made sure that every student was able to gain a full understanding of the content. She made sure she was available to the students when needed.

In the future, I suggest the instructor:

No suggestions!